Tickets at Tomassucci Travel, Stresa - find us opposite the ferry station

- Please note that there are no discounts for return tickets in Italy. Simply add together the two one way journeys for the return price
- Trains to Milan usually depart from Platform 1 at Stresa station but always double check the departures (partenze) screen
- There are large departure boards near the platforms at Milan Central station to check the platform number and each platform has a screen stating the final destination of the train and all the stops it will make
- We advise that you avoid Sundays and Mondays as shops and/or museums will be closed
- Children under 4 years travel free but have no right to a seat (i.e they must travel on an adult's lap) and children 4-12 years receive approximately 50% discount
- We will tell you if your R train ticket needs validating at the station. EC train tickets include compulsory seat reservation but do not need validating
